IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal laws require all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an Account. What this means to you: When you open an Account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

*The Prime Rate used to determine your APR is the rate published in the Wall Street Journal on the last business day of the prior month. Loss of Introductory APR: We may end your introductory APR and apply the Penalty APR if you make a late payment or if you are 60 days late one time on any of your accounts. How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called “average daily balance” (including new purchases). An explanation of this method is provided in your account agreement. Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your account agreement. The information about the costs of the cards described above is accurate as of August 2022 and is subject to change. To receive the most up to date information, write us at Forcht Bank, NA, Credit Card division, PO Box 55250, Lexington, KY 40555. OH Residents: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.
