Gov. Bevin Appoints Brunson to Housing Board

Lexington, KY – On Friday, April 29, 2016, Governor Matt Bevin appointed Steve Brunson to the Kentucky Housing Corporation Board of Directors. Brunson is a Senior Vice President of Business Development for Forcht Bank in Northern Kentucky.

Kentucky Housing Corporation (KHC) invests in affordable housing solutions by offering an array of programs and services designed to develop, preserve, and sustain affordable housing throughout the state. KHC is governed by a 15 member Board of Directors, consisting of 10 private members appointed by the governor who represent designated interests in affordable housing.

Mr. Brunson has over 25 years of banking experience in a variety of roles, and is an active member of the Northern Kentucky community with such groups as the Covington Business Council, NKY Home Builders Association, and the NKY Chamber of Commerce. He was born and raised in Northern KY, where he resides with his wife Dr. Kelly Brunson; and three children: Clair, Paige and David. He is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati.

Forcht Bank is a Kentucky-owned community bank with approximately $1 billion in assets and 30 banking centers in 12 counties - Fayette, Jefferson, Boone, Grant, Madison, Taylor, Pulaski, Laurel, Whitley, Knox, McCreary and Green. www.forchtbank.com
